The Hamilton Beach® NutriFresh™ Liquid & Food Vacuum Sealer features a patent-pending, dual-stage design that seals liquids like soups and smoothies quickly and consistently. Vacuum sealing is great for preserving the freshness of meat, fish, vegetables, and any foods that you can't eat right away, from leftovers and garden harvests to bulk food purchases. Save up to $2,275 annually* just by eliminating food waste. An elevated seal bar makes it easier to seal liquids and larger items, and the extra-wide vacuum chamber makes bag alignment easier too. A patent-pending integrated date coder heat-stamps the date on your bags so you never worry about dates rubbing off or how long food's been stored. A 2-roll storage compartment holds 2 different sized rolls to ensure you always have the right size bags for the job, to reduce waste and kitchen clutter. The built-in cutter eliminates the need for scissors, and a pulse function gives you more control when sealing delicate foods like chips and pastries. The starter kit includes everything you need to get started: an 8" x 20' roll, 11" x 16' roll, 6 Easy Fill quart bags, and an accessory hose. It's simple to operate with easy-to-clean touchpad control.
